Jan 8, 1971

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I imagine that personal charity is as distasteful to you as it is to me. Nevertheless, I hope this does not prevent you from accepting the enclosed check as part of my investment in what seems to be very important research.

I enjoyed our very short discussion and hope we can meet again at the end of January when I may be coming east again.

Best regards,

Ted Crosby